

Task 12: Looking for doubts

*Are you sure that this is it?
Maybe there is more?
Could you look at it this way?
Why not do it like this?
Is it possible he is right, too?*

Please give some thought to the questions below. Write down your initial response, even if you do not feel it is "correct" or "full". You can come back any time later and add to your notes. Do not forget to date your comments.

Look for the doubt in each of the questions/answers. Deal with it!

1. What is the significance and importance of me becoming Bar-Messimah?
2. When will I reach the stage of readiness to undertake these tasks?
3. Who is expecting me to fulfill the tasks?
4. What is actually expected from me to do exactly?
5. What are the tasks I have to carry out?
6. How shall I carry out the tasks?
7. Which tasks are more important?
8. How many tasks do I have to fulfill?
9. Do I have to carry out the tasks by myself?
10. Are there mandatory tasks to fulfill?
11. Who is "in charge" on approving my tasks and are there grades for completion?
12. When will I become Bar-Messimah™?
